A. L. MILLER SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL

LANIER SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL

All aboard for Albany! The crowd gathered in front of Miller on Friday afternoons to ride the buses to out-of-town games. Many a good time was had by all.

At Open House, Mr. H. S. Lasseter, principal of A. L. Miller, greets Mr. and Mrs. John Mattox. Their daughter Jane seems to approve.

"Son, did you clean this rifle?"

It leads to spaces wide

Before Christmas, students brought for needy children presents which were displayed at the Christmas Assembly.

Mr. J. C. Sorrells, guardian of the lunchroom, keeps a careful check on progress in the lunch line.

Newspapers today!

Help and counseling are always gladly given any student. Emmett Johns gets some advice from Mr. Del Knight, Counselor, about his course of study.

Or when you want to be alone

To celebrate Miller's Silver Anniversary, Student Council sponsored an Alumnae Homecoming. Prizes were given to alumnae having the oldest child, the youngest child, the one having the most girls, and to Miss Agnes Pittman, Mr. H. S. Lasseter, Mrs. Mary Barber, Miss Willie Mae Little, and Miss Lucile Carswell, faculty members who have taught at Miller for twenty-five years.

Last minute cramming for that "Solid" test. Dennie McCrary explains a problem to Charles Harris. Standing by, to help or maybe to get help, are Tyler Evans and John Moore.

First football parade.

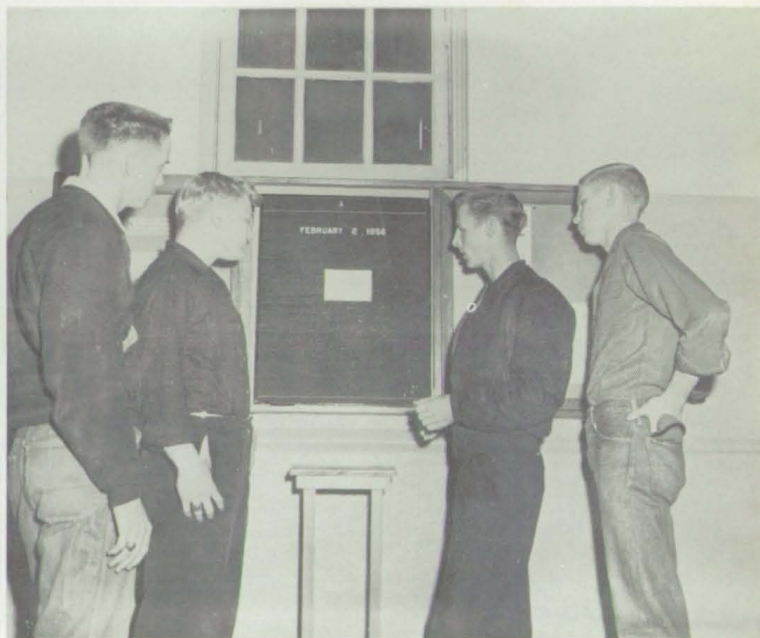

Student Council members bring to the auditorium the food collected for needy families at Thanksgiving.

Every sophomore's mother eats with him one day in the lunchroom. As the boys squirm, Mrs. Glass discusses them with their mothers.

Apparently enjoying themselves more than the audience is a quartet featured in the Student Council variety show. This show presented the top-notch talent from the school.

The bulletin board carries information of interest and value to all. Checking it are Harry Baxter, Max Salter, Bobby Durden and Tommy Johnson.

The Bibb County Board of Education is an organization of men from all phases of the business world. They are bound together by a common purpose—to keep the Door of Education open wide.

Standing in the Door of the Present, they profit from their experiences in the Past, while constantly looking to the Future.

These men, to whom we are indebted, are: Mr. Herbert F. Birdsey, Mr. George P. Rankin, Jr., Mr. Lee M. Happ, Mr. William P. Simmons, Mr. Charles C. Hertwig, Assistant Superintendent W. Howard Bridges, President J. D. Crump, Superintendent Mark A. Smith, Dr. H. G. Weaver, Mr. Albert S. Hatcher, Jr., Judge Mallory C. Atkinson, Mr. Wallace Miller, Jr., Judge Walter C. Stevens, and Judge Oscar L. Long.

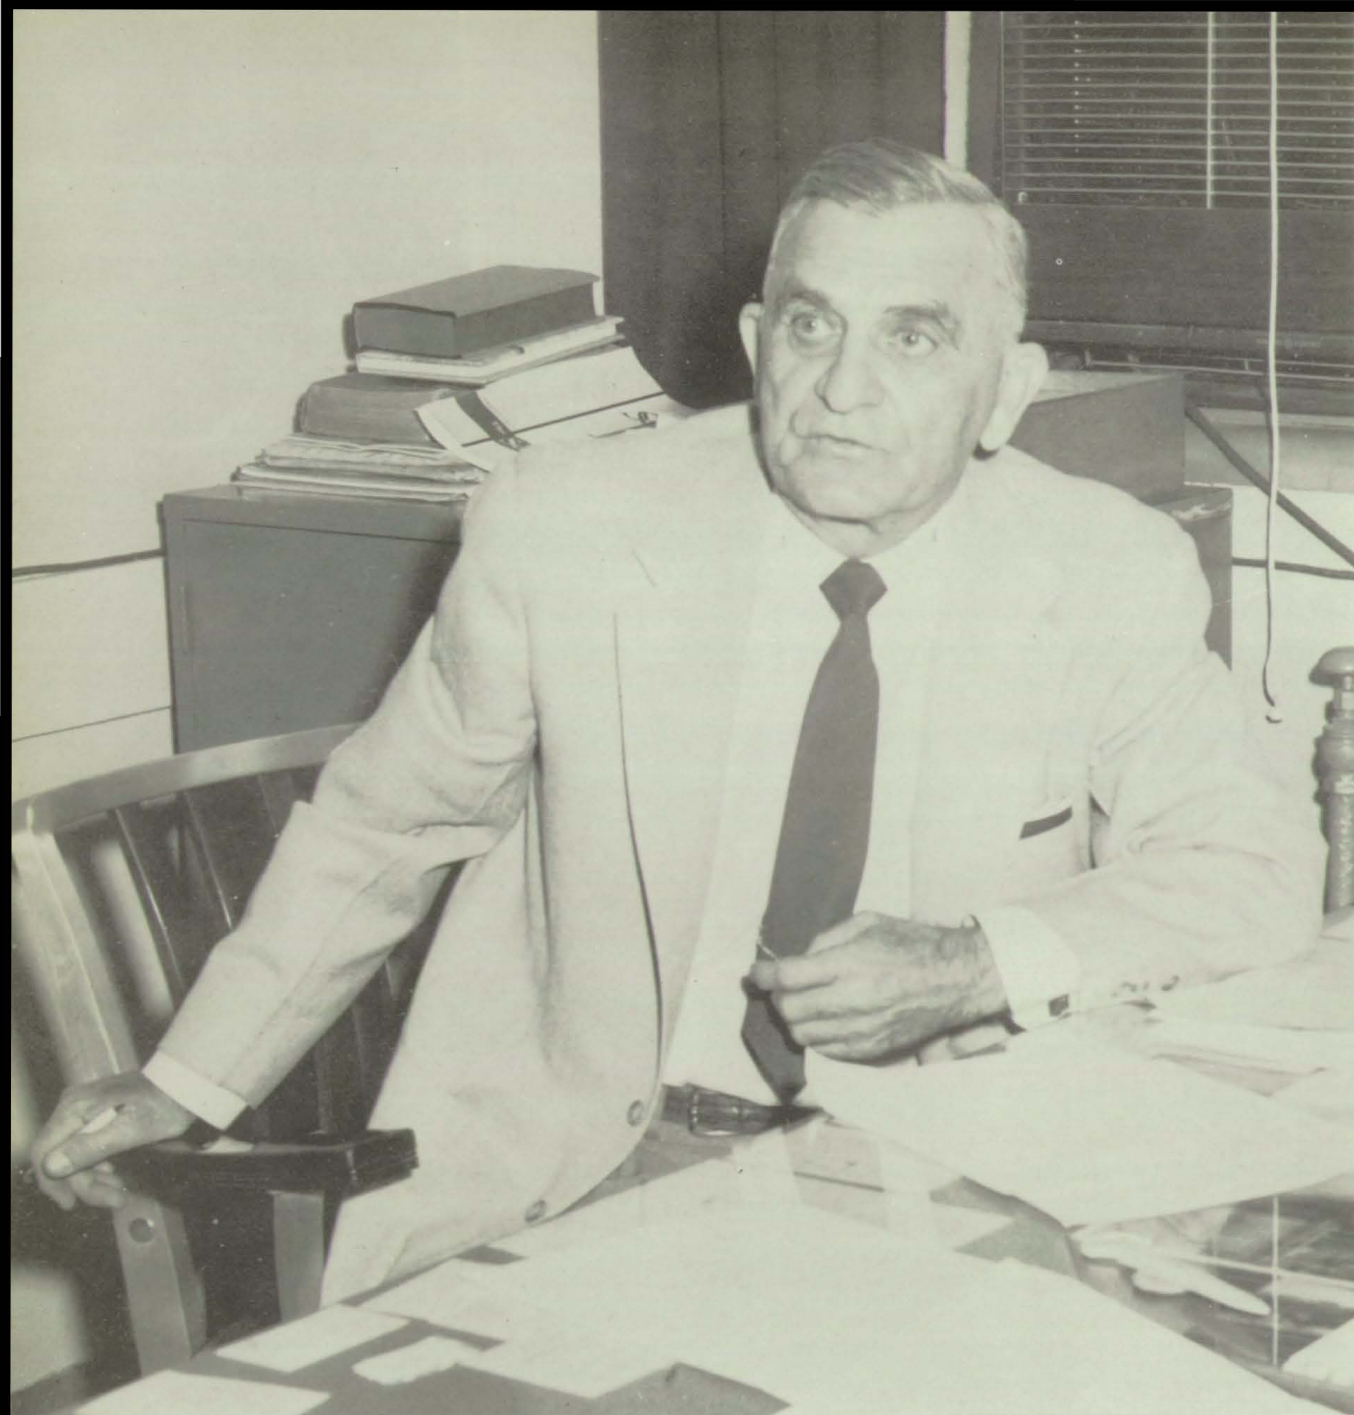

Absent when this picture was made were Mr. McKibben Lane, the Honorable B. F. Merritt, Jr., and Mr. Frank Willingham, elected at the February meeting.

DR. MARK SMITH, Superintendent of Bibb County schools, has made many improvements in the school system during his fifteen years at this post. Dr. Smith is well known throughout Georgia for his outstanding work. In 1941 and 1942 he served as president of the National Beta Club. As a Beta Senator, he still supports this honor club.

One of the busiest men in our school system is MR. HOWARD BRIDGES, Assistant Superintendent. He graduated from Lanier in 1925. After attending Mercer University, he held various administrative posts around the state. In 1954, he left his job as principal of Dublin High School to accept his present post.

This 1956 Miller-Lanier Annual is indeed a tribute to members of the senior class and other students of this school. Your portrayal of every phase of school activities during your days at high school will enhance its value to you as the years roll by. It has been my good pleasure to watch your efforts toward improving your minds and bodies, preparing yourselves for the ultimate goal of good citizenship, and I am sure that you will be successful in your future pursuits whether they be college or work.

A. J. Schwann

To the class of '56, the largest graduating class in Miller history, I extend my heartiest congratulations on your achievements in the classroom and in your school activities. Let me wish you continued success and happiness in all of your future undertakings.

To the faculty and student body, I express my heartfelt appreciation for your help and cooperation in making the twenty-fifth year one of the finest in Miller history. I feel sure that all of you will continue to do more than your share in making each year a better year.

I want to thank the Annual Staff, advisors, assistants, and solicitors for your efforts and accomplishments in making this year's Annual such a true picture of the school, its work, its ideals, and its aspirations.

W. S. Lawter

Introducing the Miller Faculty is Mrs. Dorothy Watson, librarian.

Outside a classroom are Miss Geraldine Jackson, Spanish teacher; Mrs. Sydney Tidwell, French; and Mrs. Elizabeth Poe Clark, Latin.

Selecting material for the geometry, algebra, and arithmetic students are Miss Dorothy Simmons and Miss Willie Mae Little.

Gym instructors, Miss Joyce Reddick and Miss Rosalyn Harden, show the line-up for a soccer kick-off.

Mrs. Mary Barber is shown in the office where she daily records school business.

In the chemistry lab, science department instructors, Miss Emily Orr and Mrs. Gail Carver, set up apparatus for an experiment.

Checking business machines are Mrs. Barbara Mullaney, Mrs. Margaret Elkins, Mrs. John Pellew, Miss Ann Culverhouse, Miss Agnes Pittman, and Mrs. Darien Thrasher.

Social study teachers, Miss Ann Henry, Mrs. Frances Brubaker, Miss Florence Blair, Miss Nancy White, and Miss Betty Knox, often discuss class plans.

Planning school meals are Mrs. Amy Olmstead, lunch-room dietitian, and Mrs. J. C. Bynum, her assistant.

A business student practices her shorthand while Mrs. J. P. Willingham watches.

Mrs. Ida H. Brown shows some of the work done by her art students.

To inspect new equipment, Mrs. Lamar Dorrah, Mrs. Katherine Ross, and Mrs. Lena Pendergrass meet in the home economics room.

Leading off the Lanier faculty is the English department, shown enjoying some old Orange and Greens. Seated are: Mrs. Elizabeth Glass, Miss Alice Lott, Miss Josephine Early, and Mr. James Key. Standing are: Rev. Charles R. Casey, Mr. George E. Jones, Mr. J. A. Gratigny.

Keeping up with some of her mountains of forms is Mrs. Dolores Brown, school secretary.

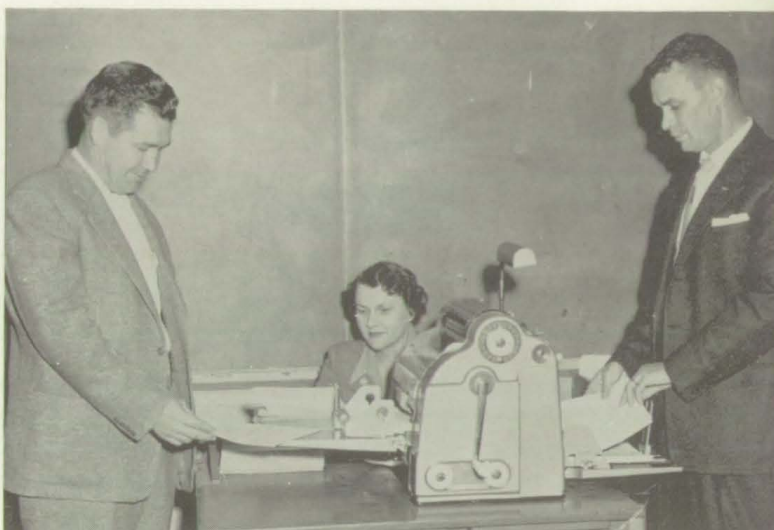

Gathered here are the teachers of the Social Sciences. Seated are: Coach Lamon Moates, Mr. William Cheatham, Mr. Gus Parker, Mr. Julius Gholson. Standing are: Mr. J. Sam Gunn and Mr. Landon H. Brent.

Lined up outside the shop door are the shop teachers, Mr. Cotton Harrison, Mr. C. R. McCord, Mr. E. O. Clark, Mr. Robert Mathews, and Mr. Hulin Webb.

Mr. Marvin Jones demonstrates a new physics lab gadget to the other science teachers: Mr. Charles Deaton, Mr. Robert Bunche, Mr. James Norris, and Mr. Robert Taylor.

Checking copies from the mimeograph machine are members of the Business department. Mrs. Margaret Mathews is seated. On each side are Mr. Elton Wall and Mr. Del Knight.

Mr. Russell Floyd looks over a French lesson, while Miss Nellie Lamar and Mr. Aubrey Floyd keep posted via Life (in Spanish).

Watching Mr. Oren Fulmer demonstrate a geometry principle are members of the mathematics department: Mr. Tom Porter, Mr. B. C. Adams, Mr. J. C. Sorrells, Mrs. Isabel Kinnett, and Mr. Clarence Goss.

Enjoying a few minutes of solitude with a piano is Mr. T. M. Gaughf, band director.

Mrs. Rose DuBose, dietitian, pauses for the photographer.

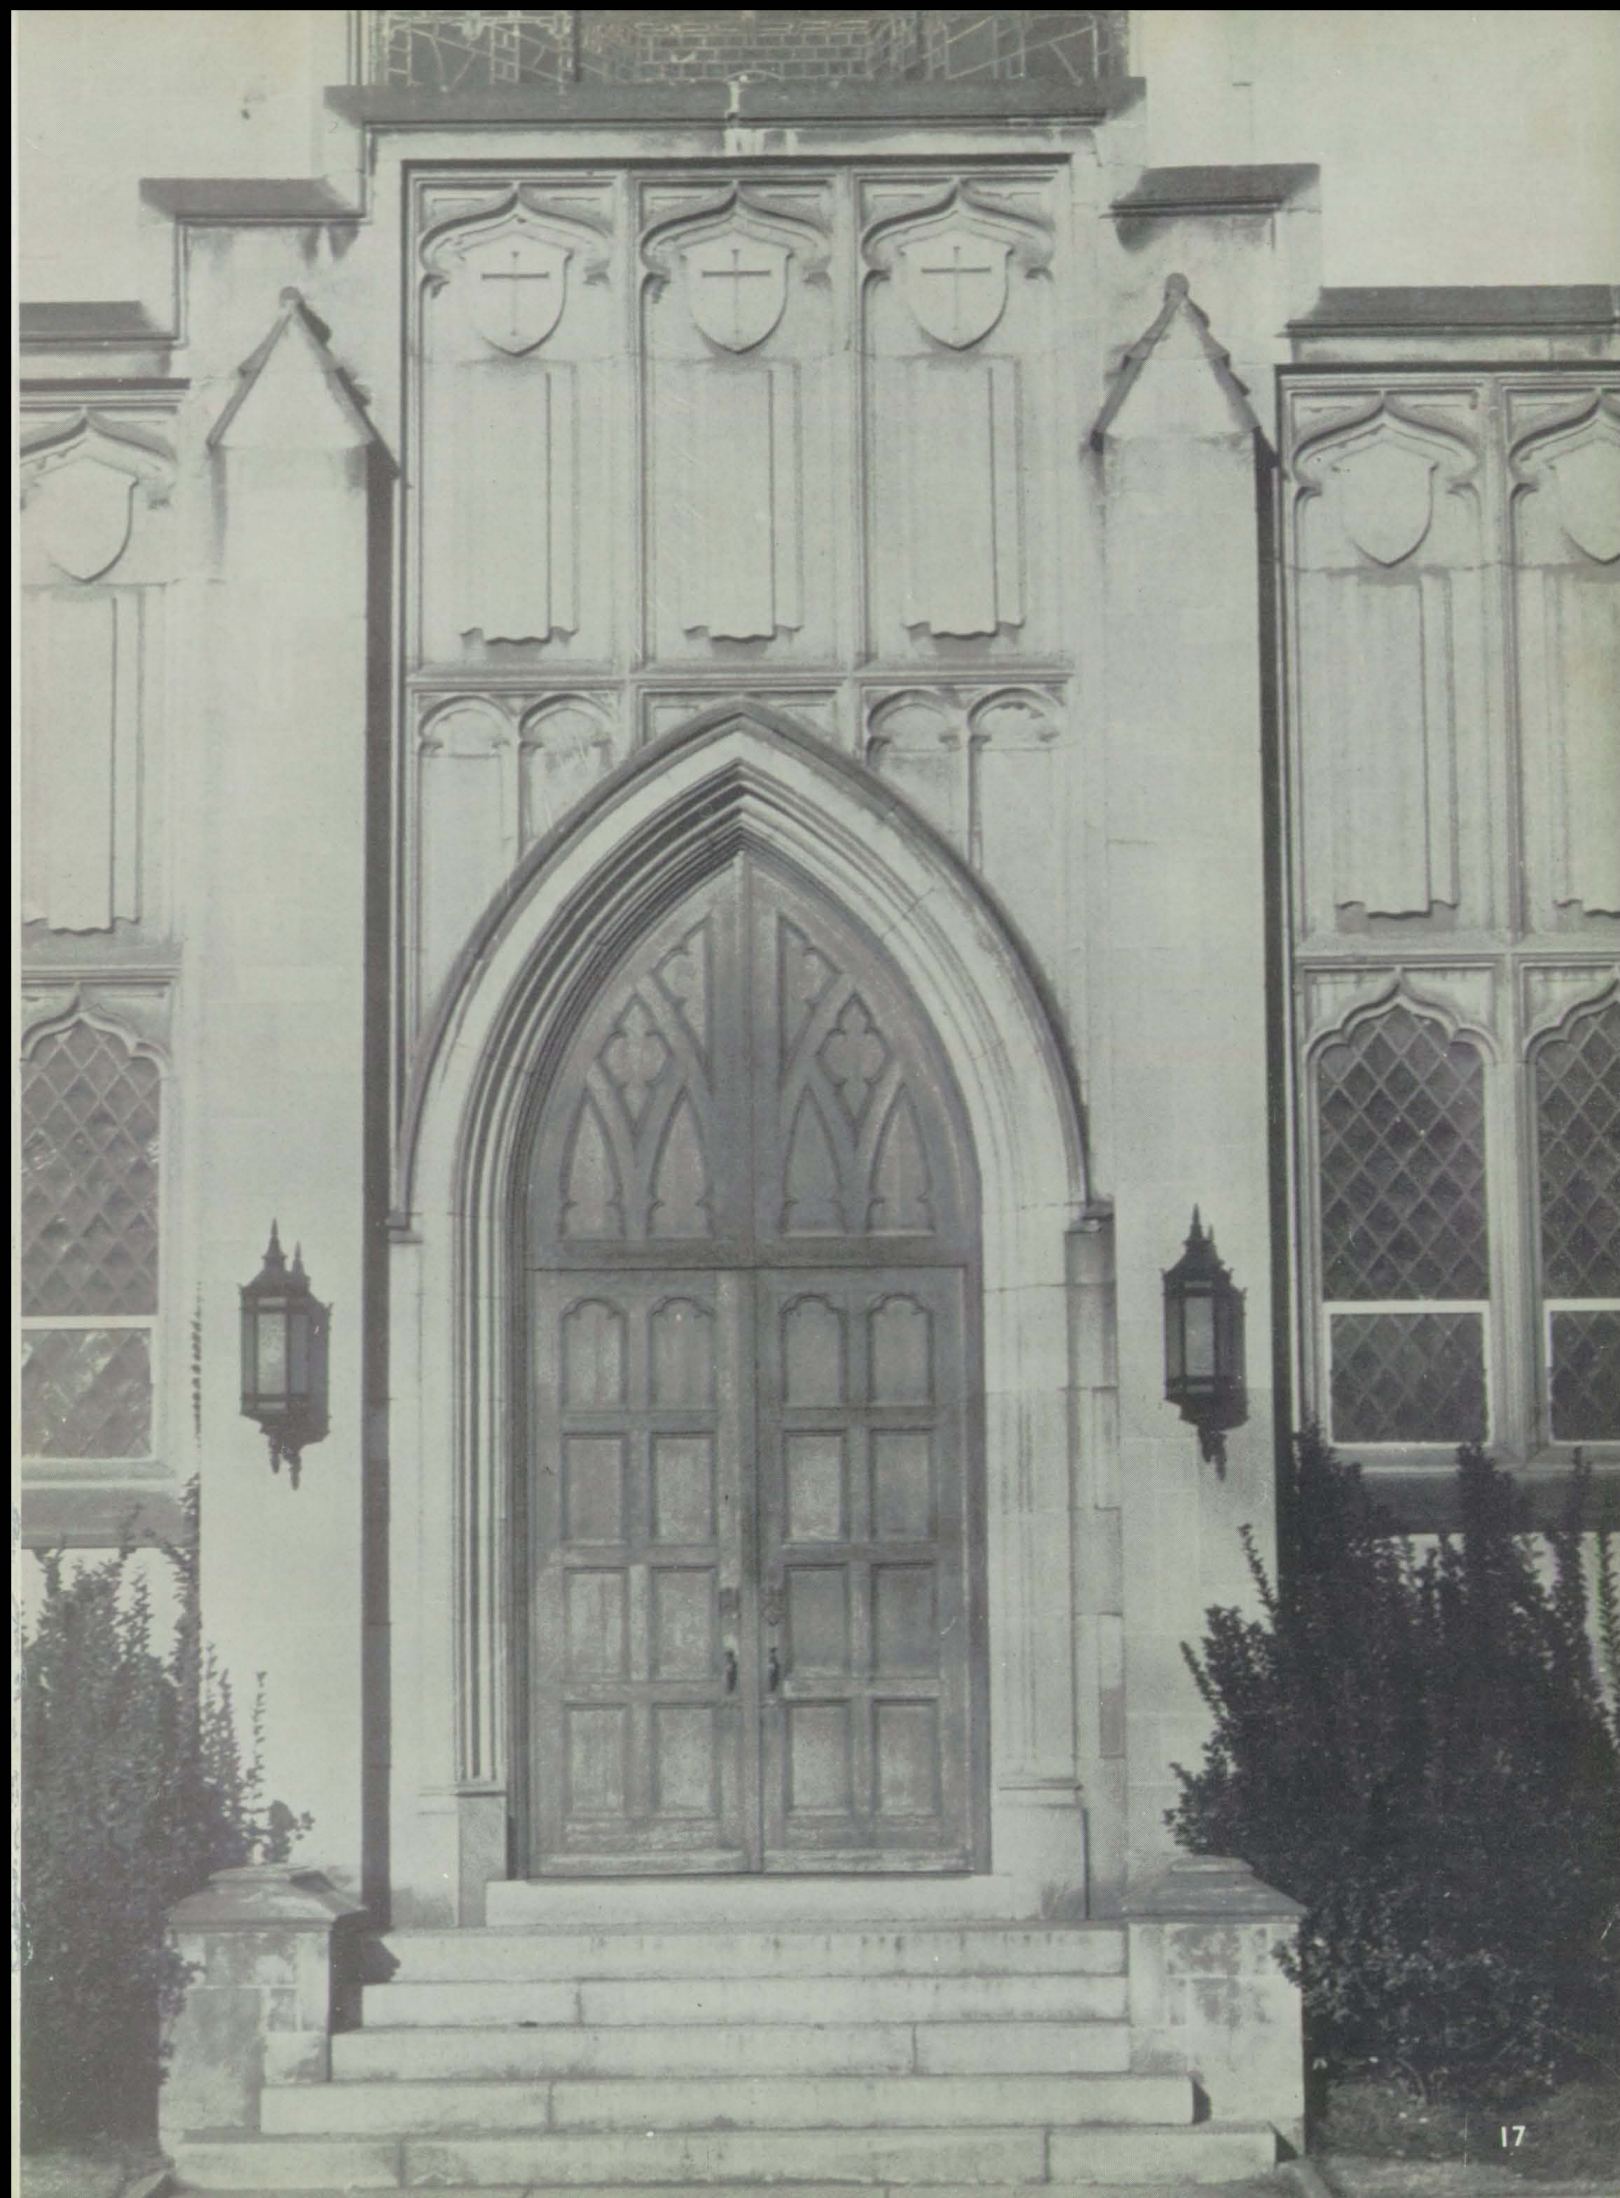

Mr. Herschel Simmons, agriculture teacher, was snapped at a show with this prize bull.

CLASSES

The Book Shop has a thousand books, all colors, hues, and tinges,
And every cover is a door that turns on magic hinges.

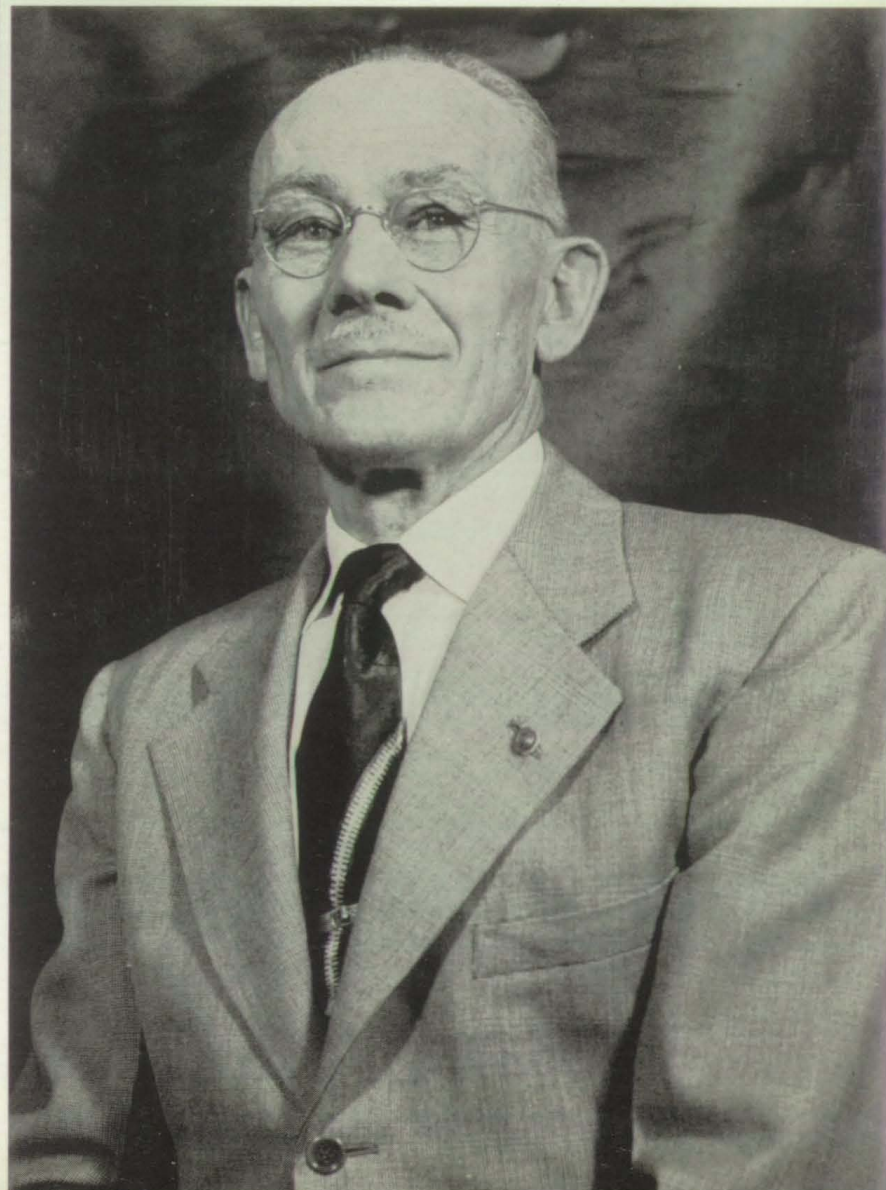

NANCY BYRD TURNER

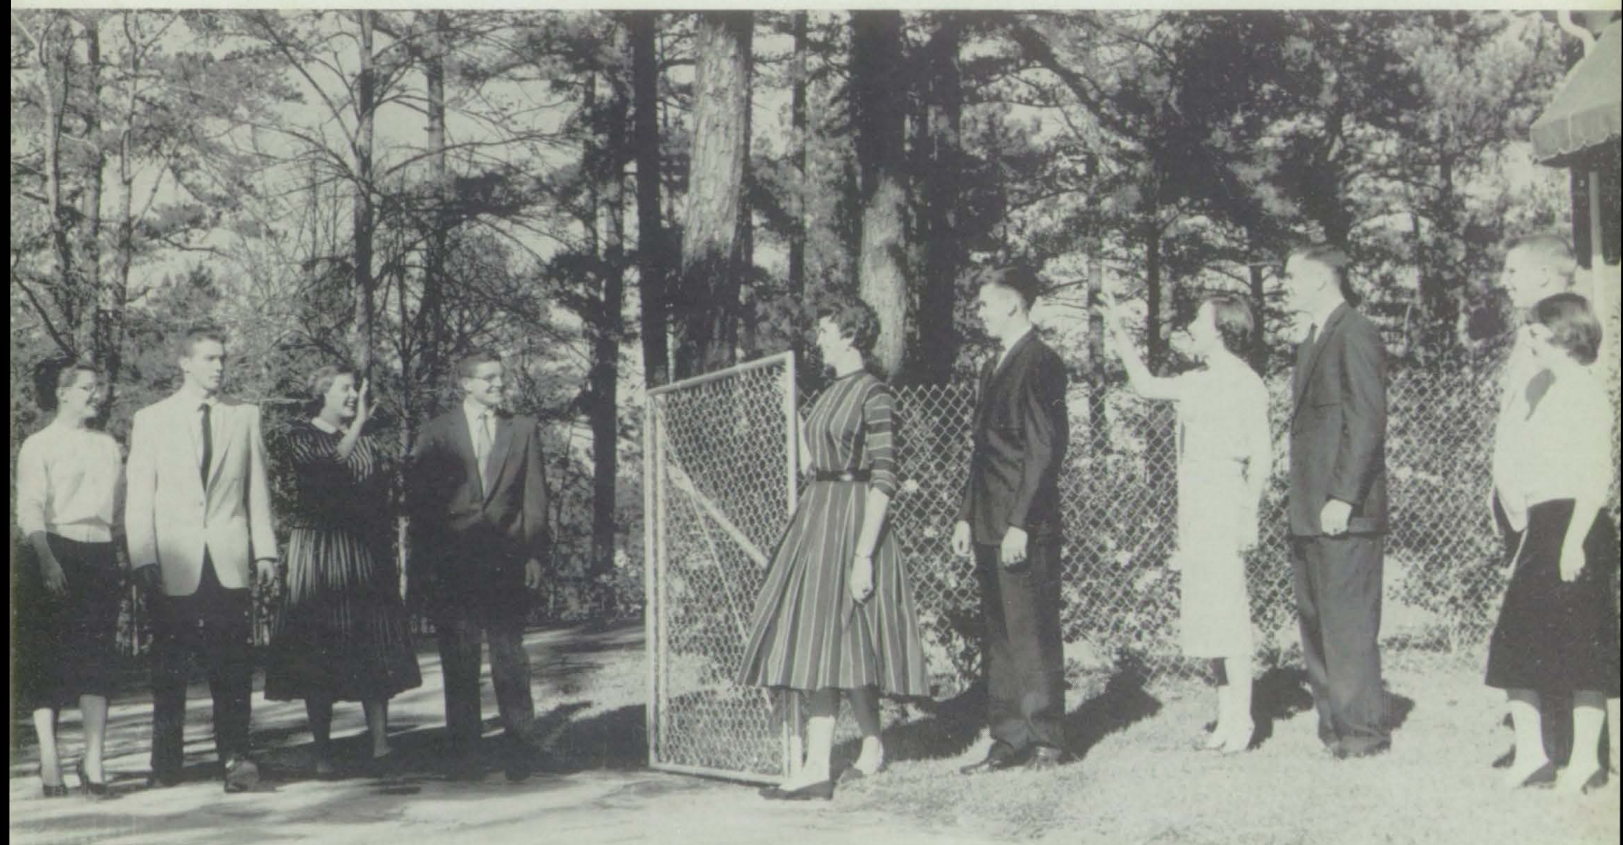

In appreciation for all that she has done for us, we, the Miller Class of 1956, proudly dedicate our Annual to Miss Ann Henry. No one who knows Miss Henry can help loving and respecting her, as we at Miller do. Her cheerful, willing cooperation in whatever she is asked to do encourages and inspires us always. Miller would not be the same without Miss Ann Henry.

For thirty-one years of faithful service and unselfish giving of help, in any way, to the thousands of boys who have passed through these doorways—for the same unselfish spirit which twice caused him to be wounded while serving with the Marines in World War I, we, the Senior Class of Lanier Senior High School, proudly dedicate this '56 ANNUAL to Mr. E. O. Clark.

The Senior Class Officers, standing on the front row, are: Danny Minor, secretary; Jackie Davis, vice president; Bob Hearn, president; and Tim Adams, vice president. Standing behind them are: Patricia Emanuel, president; and Loma Greene, secretary.

Student Councils open the Participating in Student Council's Christmas Assembly, supervision representatives wish everyone "A Merry Christmas."

Student Council aides help during assemblies.

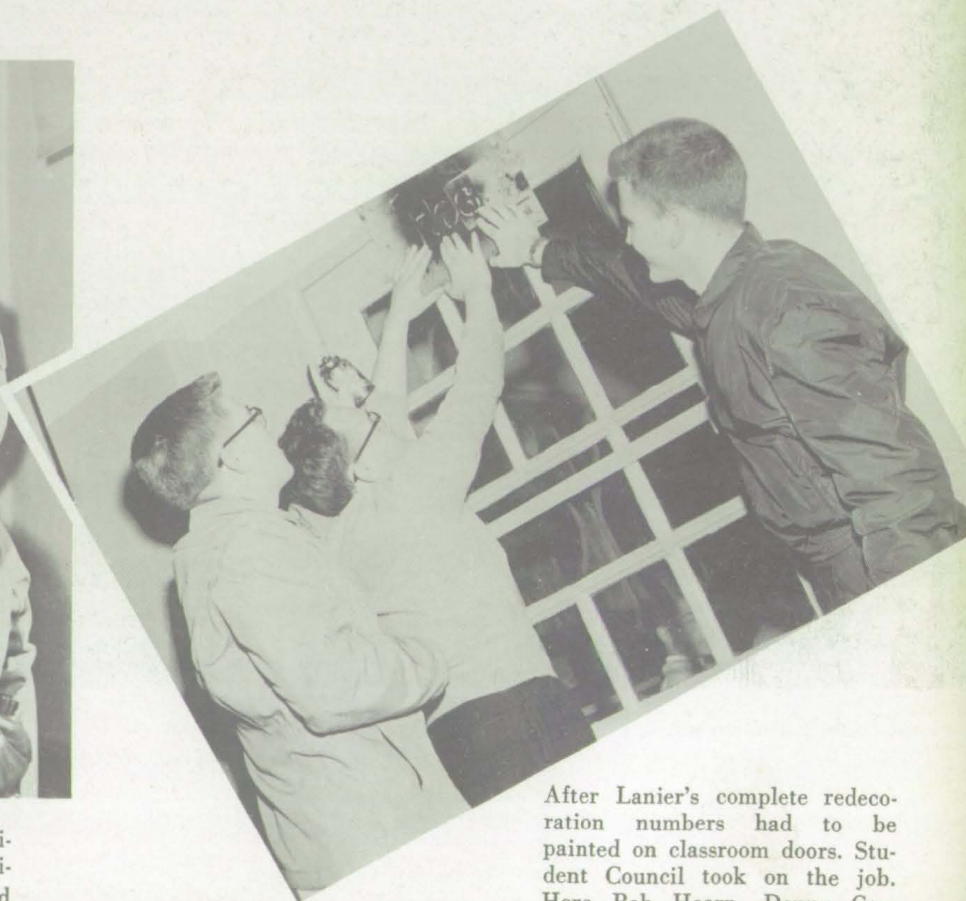

Gail Little, secretary; Jackie Davis, president; Linda Clark, vice president; Madge Clark, corresponding secretary; and Mimi McMahan, treasurer, consult Miss Carswell and Miss Pittman about address books.

Completing plans for an assembly program are: president Tom Purdy and Jimmy Manley, seated; vice president Tim Adams, advisor Mrs. Isabel Kinnett, and secretary-treasurer Luther Ray.

After Lanier's complete redecoration numbers had to be painted on classroom doors. Student Council took on the job. Here Bob Hearn, Donny Cornett, and Luther Ray paint the number on Mr. Peurifoy's door.

Final plans for the annual are being made by the editors and associate editors. Seated are: Julian Tolbert, Camille Adams and Betty Timberlake. Standing are: Bridges Smith and Donny Cornett.

Other members of the editorial staff are: Shirley Graves, artist; Linda Nichols, feature editor; Hop Justus, biographer; and Bunnie Devine, artist. Standing are: Tim Adams, military editor; and Marvin Bentley, sports editor.

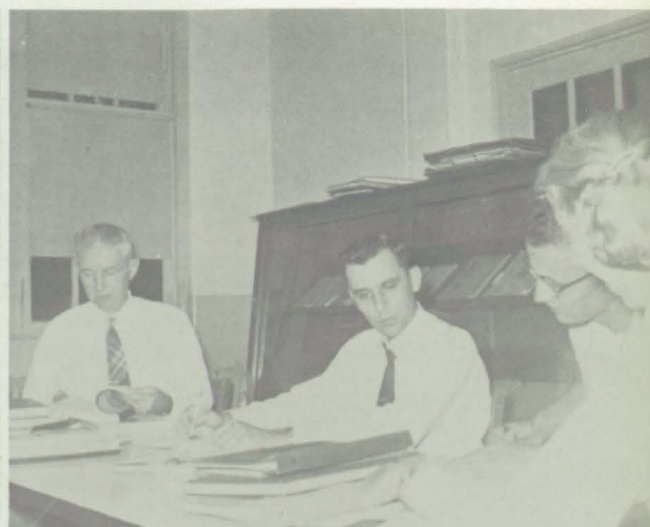

The annual editorial advisors are trying to choose which picture they want on that particular page. They are Mrs. Elizabeth Poe Clark, Miss Geraldine Jackson and Miss Nellie Lamar.

Dale Bagley, Sylvia Bennett, Ernestine Sanders, Typing instructor Del Knight, and Jerry McElreath are the persons responsible for the typing throughout the annual.

the past with the future,

Junior Biographers, Cindy Birdsey and Patsy Burton, look at annuals of other schools, hoping to get some new ideas.

Business advisor J. C. Sorrells, Taylor Publishing Company Agent Al Rashe, and editors Bridges and Betty spent several long afternoons choosing a theme for the annual.

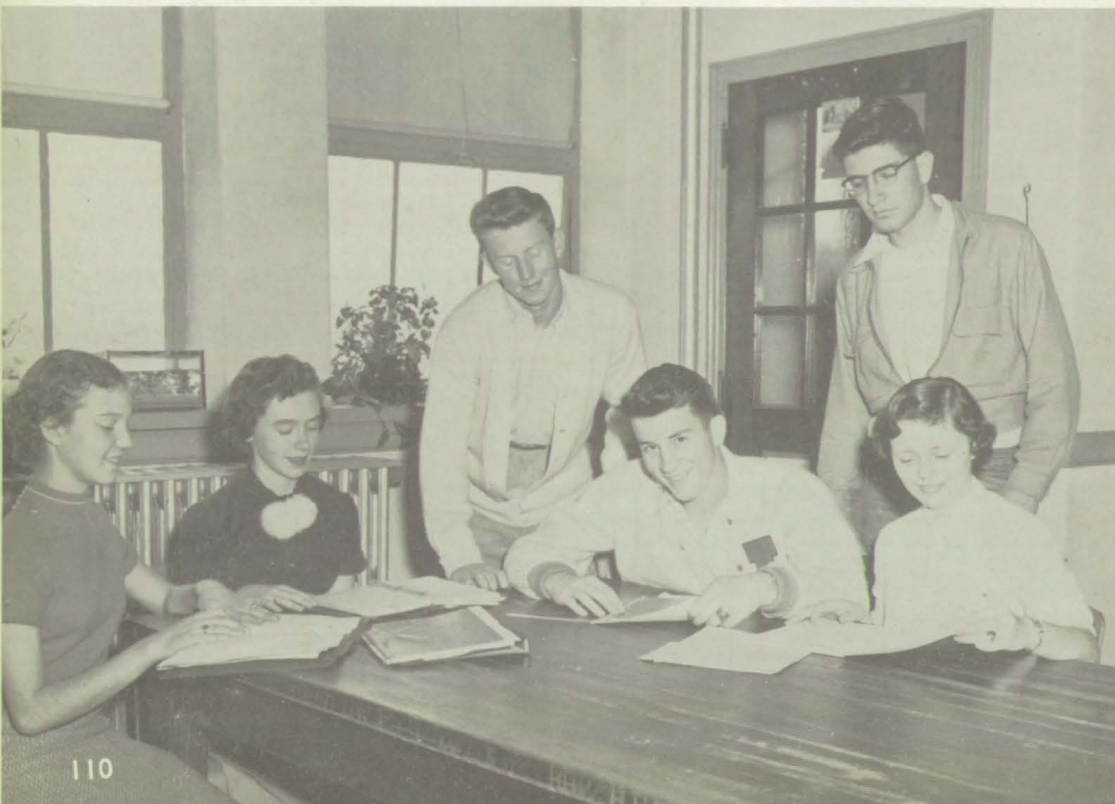

Work and play were combined the afternoon the staff met out at "The lodge."

The Miller editorial staff caught in the annual "office" (?), is proofreading a section of the annual.

Business Managers Bobby Boone and Reg Trice contact a local businessman concerning an ad.

The annual salesmen are holding a meeting to discuss their progress. Seated are: Harriett Devine, Bobby Lewis, Marshall Johnson, Ginny Everett, Angela Reeves, Nancy Hubbard, Paul Tucker, Margaret Williamson, Larry Laurens, Elaine Smith.
